

Knowledge Beckons

By Cameron Tobin

Amidst dark
blue twilight
I bask
in a light
from a star,
Distant
but always watching me.

It beckons.
Calling me
to act
on its will.
“Seek more lights,”
it spoke.
“I will know what you learn.”

It left me there in the darkness.
